Software development and organization of the tournament

- 一期一会 Ichi go ichi e! / One time, one meeting /! Meetings never repeat in our lives so let's fully enjoy this one. We are going to have a unique event in its essence, as it is the annual international Shotokan tournament "Shiseikan". A place where the past meets the future. The past in the form of the knowledge we all study and develop, the present, which defines our future and the future of Karate as we will pass it to our followers. In the spirit of the traditions handed down to us by the father of modern Karate - Gichin Funakoshi, which provide that the personal development is achieved by overcoming the ego, the organizing committee of the upcoming tournament aims at organizing an event in the spirit of Budo. A fight in which all participants will be winners: Both winners and losers will learn by exploring their strengths and weaknesses and finding out what they need to improve in the future.
- First! Seek perfection of character!
- (Hitotsu! Jinkaku kansei ni tsutomuru koto)
- We will return from the sport to Budo. Real samurai in spirit will meet in the shiajo's fights, because the purpose of Karate-Do is not the victory over the enemy but the victory over ourselves. And if one fighter has defeated himself, overcoming his fears, restraints, prejudices, even if he does not defeat the opponent, leaving the tatami, he will be able to say with dignity to himself: I have seen my omissions and what I have to work on. I took a step forward ... tomorrow I will be better than today.
- First! Respect others!
- (Hitotsu! Reigi o omonzuru koto)
- Let's turn inward and end the sports pursuit of medals. Let's stop feeding the ego and build a hard, noble character of warriors! As the ancient people say, "It is a double win if you are able to control yourself after the victory." Everybody must have respect to those who have lost and act with modesty and restraint. Let's make this day a celebration for all of us. Everyone who takes part in this tournament is doing it out of love for Karate. Let's all check where we are on the Way and have respect not only for those who are ahead of us but also for those who follow us. Let's not forget where we started from.
- First! Refrain from violent behavior!
- (Hitotsu! Kekki no yu o imashimuru koto.)
- Based on the above :
 - There will be no medals at the tournament
 - There will not be a podium
 - The award ceremony is made immediately at the shiajo. Everyone receives a diploma.
 - There is no tolerance of attitude against Budo's ethics
 - Every applause and support for each participant is tolerated, even if he is from another team or opponent at the time. Show Nobility of Character!
 - Each fight ends with a restrained attitude towards the opponent / karate begins and ends with a bow /
 - The behavior on Shiajo is the same as the behavior on the battlefield!
 - Karate is art! Express yourself through your Karate!

Karate is based on Bushido (the warrior-samurai path). Bushido's goal is to help the warrior master himself, understand his own consciousness and the surrounding world through his life experience and by developing strength, self-control and wisdom. Sincerity, honesty, kindness, devotion and honor, supplemented by a warlike spirit, are the very essence of Bushido and the seed from which the philosophy of Karate-Do originates. In Karate the body, consciousness and spirit evolve in harmony, and no physical force can be compared to the power of this trinity. The result is the achievement of ease of action, confidence, combined with modesty, openness and peace; in other words, the overall development of the personality.

Let this message reach all the participants in the tournament: Coaches, Athletes, Parents, and Team Supporters. Osu!
